

Promotional Offer

Give your congregation free access to the Life Talks Conference on March 23, 2024!

We believe in the benefit of attending Life Talks so strongly, that we are offering churches and organizations a special group rate that will allow ANYONE from your church or organization to attend for FREE!

How it works:

The cost of the promocode is based on your "active attendance". Let us know which category you fall into so we can invoice you accordingly and provide you with a promocode specific to your group. Attendees register online at www.haltonalive.ca/lifetalks and enter their promocode, which will zero out the ticket cost. You can also allow your secretary to collect the contact information of registrants and pass it on to Halton Alive.

Registration allows us to plan accurately and track how many people use the promocode.

Active attendance	Cost	Benefit
Level 1: 250 or less	$500	This equates approximately 12 individual tickets
Level 2: 250-1000	$1,000	This equates approximately 25 individual tickets
Level 3: 1000+	$2,000	This equates approximately 50 individual tickets

If your group's attendance at Life Talks exceeds the "approximate benefit" - wonderful! Halton Alive is prepared to absorb any additional costs incurred because our primary goal is to see people benefit from all that they will learn and be equipped for by the conference.

Promotions:

Halton Alive will provide you with the tools you need to share Life Talks with your community, such as custom posters, slides, promo video, and talking points for making announcements. If you have social media we encourage you to follow @haltonalive so you can share our posts about the conference.
